GREATER CHESAPEAKE HAND SPECIALISTS ANNOUNCES RELOCATION OF ITS CARROLL COUNTY OFFICE

GCHS move to David Greene Building will be complete on March 2

Baltimore, MD (February 10, 2011) – Dr. Neal Zimmerman and Dr. Christopher Forthman of Greater Chesapeake Hand Specialists, P.A. (GCHS), a Hand Surgery/Orthopedic group based in Lutherville, have announced the relocation of their Carroll County office to the new David Greene Building. Located at 844 Washington Road, Suite 102 in Westminster near Interstate 97, the new office is co-located within the office of Dr. Mark Blue and Carroll Orthopaedic Specialists.

Dr. Neal Zimmerman, who has been working with patients in the Carroll County region for more than 20 years, and Dr. Forthman who also operates out of Carroll Hospital Center, are both Board Certified in Orthopaedic Surgery and specialize in treatment of the Upper Extremity.

“It was important to have a new office that is convenient and accessible to the people of the Carroll County region,” stated Dr. Christopher Forthman of GCHS. “We achieved this objective with a facility that is comfortable, modern and includes the availability of in-house radiology,” he added.

Founded in 1987 and based in Lutherville, MD, Greater Chesapeake Hand Specialists, P.A. focuses on providing successful outcomes for the entire spectrum of problems associated with the hand, wrist, elbow and shoulder. The practice group, which consists of nine full-time physicians, maintains seven satellite locations throughout Anne Arundel, Baltimore, Carroll, Howard and Talbot counties, as well as Baltimore City.
